WALK CIRCLES AROUND YOUR JERICHO

Here is what you need to know about the walls of Jericho. They were immense. They wrapped around the city like a suit of armor, two concentric circles of stone rising a total of forty feet above the ground. Impenetrable.

Here is what you need to know about Jericho's inhabitants. They were ferocious and barbaric. They withstood all sieges and repelled all invaders. They were guilty of child sacrifice. "They even burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices to their gods!" (Deut. 12:31 NCV). They were a Bronze-age version of the gestapo, ruthless tyrants on the plains of Canaan.¹ Until the day Joshua showed up.

Until the day his army marched in. Until the day the bricks cracked and the boulders broke. Until the day everything shook—the stones of the walls, the knees of the king, the molars of the soldiers. The untoppleable fortress met the unstoppable force.

Mighty Jericho crumbled.

But here is what you need to know about Joshua. He didn't bring the walls down. Joshua's soldiers never swung a hammer. His men never dislodged a brick. They never rammed a door or pried loose a stone. The shaking, quaking, rumbling, and tumbling of the thick, impervious walls? God did that for them.

God will do that for you. Your Jericho is your fear. Your Jericho is your anger, bitterness, or prejudice. Your insecurity about the future. Your guilt about the past. Your negativity, anxiety, and proclivity to criticize, overanalyze, or compartmentalize. Your Jericho is any attitude or mind-set that keeps you from joy, peace, or rest.

Jericho.

It stands between you and your Glory Days. It mocks you and tells you to take your dreams back to the wilderness. It stands like an ogre on the bridge of progress. It is big; it is evil. It blocks your way. And its walls must fall. To live in the Promised Land, you must face your Jericho.

It's not always easy. Every level of inheritance requires a disinheritance from the devil. Satan must be moved off before the saint can move in. Joshua told his people to "go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess" (Josh. 1:11). The verb translated possess means "to occupy" (by driving out previous tenants, and possessing in their place).² Satan won't leave without a fight. He will resist. He will push back. But he will not win. Why? Because God has already declared that you are the victor. Satan, defanged and defeated at Calvary, has no authority over you.

God's word to Joshua is God's word to us: "Be strong and of good courage" (1:6). Do not heed your fear. Do not cower before your woes. Take the land God has given you to possess.

"And the LORD said to Joshua: 'See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valor'" (6:2).

God did not say, "Joshua, take the city."

God said, "Joshua, receive the city I have taken."

Joshua did not go forth hoping to win. He knew that God had already won.

The same can be said about you and your challenge. God does not say, “Bob, break your bad habit.”

He says, “Bob, I have broken the bad habits of your life. Receive the blessing of my victory.”

Remember, you are a coheir with Christ. Every attribute of Jesus is at your disposal. Was Jesus victorious? Did he overcome sin and death? Yes! Will you be victorious? Can you overcome sin and death? Yes! The question is not, will you overcome? It is, when will you overcome? Life will always bring challenges. But God will always give strength to face them.

Things are different in the Promised Land. Hang-ups and addictions do not have the last word. Today’s problem is not necessarily tomorrow’s problem. Don’t incarcerate yourself by assuming it is. Resist self-labeling. “I’m just a worrier.” “Gossip is my weakness.” “My dad was a drinker, and I guess I’ll carry on the tradition.”

Stop that! These words create alliances with the devil. They grant him access to your spirit. It is not God’s will that you live a defeated, marginalized, unhappy, and weary life. Turn a deaf ear to the old voices and make new choices. “The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yes, I have a good inheritance” (Ps. 16:6). Live out of your inheritance, not your circumstance.

God has already promised a victory. And he has provided weapons for the fight.

I can picture the soldiers perking up as Joshua, their commander, announces, “It is time to take Jericho!”

“Great!” they reply. “We have our ladders and ropes!”

“We will scale the walls!”

“Our spears are sharpened, and our swords are polished!”

“Which side do we attack first?”

Joshua looks at his men and says, “Well, God has a different strategy.” The general outlines the most unlikely of attacks. “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD” (Josh. 6:6).

Joshua commands soldiers to march before and behind the priests. He tells the priests to blow the trumpets continually as they walk around the city once a day. As for the rest of the people? “You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout" (v. 10).

Wait a minute. No war cry? No hand-to-hand combat? No flashing swords, flying spears, battering rams, or catapults? Just priests, rams' horns, marching, and silence? Joshua has at least forty thousand soldiers at his command, and he tells them to be quiet and watch?

What kind of warfare is this?

Spiritual warfare. Every battle, ultimately, is a spiritual battle. Every conflict is a contest with Satan and his forces. Paul urged us to stand "against the wiles of the devil" (Eph. 6:11). The Greek word he used for "wiles" is methodia, from which we get our English word method.³ Satan is not passive or fair. He is active and deceptive. He has designs and strategies. Consequently, we need a strategy as well. For that reason "though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds" (2 Cor. 10:3-4).

Just as Jericho was a stronghold in Canaan, we have strongholds in our lives. The apostle Paul used the term to describe a mind-set or attitude.

“The weapons of our warfare are . . . mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God” (vv. 4–5, emphasis mine). The apostle defined a stronghold as an argument or high thing that “exalts itself against the knowledge of God.” It is a conviction, outlook, or belief that attempts to interfere with truth.

Other translations describe a stronghold as

- “imagination” (KJV),
- “pretension” (NIV),
- “lofty opinion” (ESV),
- “warped philosophies” (MSG).

A stronghold is a false premise that denies God’s promise. It “sets itself up against the knowledge of God” (v. 5 NIV). It seeks to eclipse our discovery of God. It attempts to magnify the problem and minimize God’s ability to solve it.

Does a stronghold have a strong hold on you? Do you see nothing but Jericho? Do you feel nothing but despair? Do you think thoughts of defeat? Do you speak the language of impossibility?

God could never forgive me. (the stronghold of guilt)

I could never forgive that person. (the stronghold of resentment)

Bad things always happen to me. (the stronghold of self-pity)

I have to be in charge. (the stronghold of pride)

I don't deserve to be loved. (the stronghold of rejection)

I'll never recover. (the stronghold of defeat)

I must be good, or God will reject me. (the stronghold of performance)

I'm only as good as I look. (the stronghold of appearance)

My value equals my possessions. (the stronghold of materialism)

Most Christians don't recognize strongholds.⁴ They live in the shadow of these joy-sucking Jerichos.

But we don't have to be among them. Our weapons are from God and have "divine power to demolish strongholds" (v. 4 NIV).

Isn't that what we want? We long to see our strongholds demolished, turned into rubble once and for all, forever and ever, ka-boom! We long to see Jericho brought to the ground. How does this happen?

By keeping God in the center.

The ark of the covenant was the symbol of the Lord's presence. Joshua placed the ark in the middle of the procession. Every activity orbited around God. We don't attack our Jericho with anger, blame casting, or finger-pointing. No, we keep God center stage, using the weapons of worship, Scripture, and prayer. We employ every tool God offers: hymns, songs, communion, Scripture memorization, and petition. We turn off the TV and open the Bible more. We remember Jesus' promise: "I am with you always" (Matt. 28:20). We worry less, pray always. We even blast our version of a ram's horn.

Ram's horn?

The Hebrews used two instruments: the silver trumpet and the ram's horn. The silver trumpet was used to call the people to assemble (Num. 10:2). The ram's horn celebrated a battle already won. When Abraham displayed his willingness to give up his son Isaac as an offering, God stopped him and provided a ram. The ram's horn reminds us of God's sovereign generosity. God gave Abraham a ram of deliverance. God told Joshua to fill the air with sounds of ram's horn victory.

And, curiously, he told the people to keep quiet. "Don't say a word" (Josh. 6:10 NCV). No chitchat. No opinion giving or second-guessing. No whining or chatting. Keep your mouth shut and the trumpets loud.

Imagine the reaction of the Canaanites as Joshua's army marched circles around them. The first day they mocked the Hebrews. The second day they scoffed again but not as loudly. By the fourth and fifth days, the enemy had grown silent. What are these Hebrews up to? they wondered. On the sixth day the Canaanites were dry mouthed and wide eyed as the Hebrews made their round. The people of Jericho had never fought a battle like this.

Just as challenging is your battle with your archenemy, the devil. He has held this stronghold in your life for years. You've tried everything to overcome it: renewed discipline, self-help books, pop culture gurus. Nothing helps. But now you come in God's power with God center stage, Jesus in your heart, angels in front and back. You come, not with hope of a possible victory, but with assurance of complete victory.

March like a Promised Land conqueror. Blast your ram's horn. Sing songs of redemption, and declare scriptures of triumph. Marinate your mind with the declaration of Jesus, "It is finished!"

(John 19:30), and the announcement of the angels, “He is not here; for He is risen” (Matt. 28:6). Personalize the proclamations of Paul: “We are more than conquerors through [Christ]” (Rom. 8:37), and “I can do all things through Christ” (Phil. 4:13). As you do, the demons will begin to scatter. They have no choice but to leave.

Sometime back a mother asked me to pray for her eight-year-old son. He was troubled by a constant barrage of images and scary visions. He saw people behind cars and in shadows. The images left him withdrawn and timid. They even took his sleep at night.

On the day we met he appeared defeated. His smile was gone. While his other siblings were confident and happy, there was no joy in his face. His eyes often filled with tears, and he clung to his mother.

She had taken him to doctors, but nothing had helped. Would I be willing to pray for him?

I told the young boy what I’ve been telling you. That the devil has no authority over his life. That the real battles are fought in the mind. That God will help us take every thought captive.

I told him about the spiritual weapons of worship, Scripture, and prayer and urged him to memorize a Bible verse and quote it each time the fearful thoughts came to mind. I gave him a tool. “Reach up with your hand,” I urged, “and grab the thought and throw it in the trash. And as quickly as you do that, replace it with a verse of Scripture.” We then anointed him with oil and prayed.

Five days later his mother reported great progress. “Since last week the images are gone; he is no longer seeing them. He is doing well in school, and he is enjoying reading the book of Genesis. God gave us Psalm 25:5, ‘Lead me in Your truth and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day.’ He recites this verse nightly. I believe this has brought him closer to Christ. He uses the strategy of throwing the fearful thoughts away in the trash can. He said when he tried to throw them away, his head would hurt. I asked, ‘What made them go away?’ He smiled and said, ‘I know God made them go away.’”⁵

Another Jericho bites the dust.

“Yell a loud no to the Devil and watch him scamper” (James 4:7 MSG). He will retreat. He must retreat. He is not allowed in the place where God is praised. Just keep praising and walking.

“But, Max, I’ve been walking a long time,” you say.

WALK CIRCLES AROUND YOUR JERICHO

Yes, it seems like it. It must have seemed that way to the Hebrews too. Joshua did not tell them how many trips they would have to make around the city. God told Joshua that the walls would fall on the seventh day, but Joshua didn't tell the people. They just kept walking.

Our Joshua didn't tell us either. Through the pen of Paul, Jesus urges us to "be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Cor. 15:58).

Keep walking. For all you know this may be the day the walls come down. You may be only steps from a moment like this.

On the seventh day . . . they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner . . . And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! . . ."

So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people . . . took the city. (Josh. 6:15–16, 20)

The very walls that kept them out became stepping-stones onto which they could climb.

By the way, a great shaking is coming for this world too. Our Joshua, Jesus, will give the signal, and a trumpet will blast. He will reclaim every spoil and repel, once and for all, each demon. He will do again what he did in Canaan.

Until he does, keep marching and believing. Defeat your strongholds with the spiritual weapons of worship, Scripture, and prayer. Move from false premises to God's promises.

It's just a matter of time before your Jericho comes down.

PSALM 144:1-2

SCRIPTURE

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

ROMANS 8:37

PRAYER

Dear God, you are my rock. You have made me more than a conqueror in Jesus' name. It's easy to feel overwhelmed in this life, but I know that you will win every battle. I trust that you will protect me at all times. Because of your lovingkindness, I am saved. In your name I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

Let the whole creation cry: Alleluia!
Glory to the Lord on high! Alleluia!
Heav'n and earth, awake and sing: Alleluia!
God is good and therefore king! Alleluia!

"LET THE WHOLE CREATION CRY" BY STOPFORD A. BROOKE

SCRIPTURE

You alone are the LORD;
You have made heaven,
The heaven of heavens, with all their host,
The earth and everything on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And You preserve them all.
The host of heaven worships You.

NEHEMIAH 9:6

PRAYER

Almighty God, you created the heavens and the earth and everything in them. How could anything stand against you? You've created every mountain and orchestrated each sunset. And you hold me in the same hands that hold the universe. I'm humbled and comforted. Thank you for caring about every detail of my life. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

The pow'r of God is just the same today,
It doesn't matter what the people say;
Whatever God has promised
He's able to perform:
And the power of God is just the same today.

“THE POWER OF GOD” BY FREDERICK A. GRAVES

SCRIPTURE

Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace, be still!” And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

MARK 4:39

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, I am so quick to forget your power and your authority. Remind me that you are the God who calms the wind and the waves. You are the God who is worshipped by man and also by nature. The storms that I face are nothing compared to your strength. You bring peace and calm with a single word. All creation obeys you, and all creation worships you. In Christ's name, amen.

WORSHIP

We will rejoice in your salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners!

May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.
Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He will answer him from His holy heaven
With the saving strength of His right hand.

PSALM 20:5-6

SCRIPTURE

Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

MATTHEW 7:7-8

PRAYER

Father, you have given me the victory. All I have to do is ask, and I will receive it. You are quick to open the door when I knock. Thank you for always being present in my life and never turning me away. Thank you for your steadfast love. In your name I pray this, amen.

WORSHIP

All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels
prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown Him Lord
of all.
Let every tribe and every tongue before Him
prostrate fall
And shout in universal song the crowned Lord of all.

"ALL HAIL THE POWER OF JESUS' NAME"
BY EDWARD PERRONET

SCRIPTURE

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.

EPHESIANS 6:10

PRAYER

Father, I worship you along with the angels and all of creation. You are Lord of all, yet you are near to me, especially in times of heartbreak. When I am broken, be near me. Give me your strength and hold me up with your might. Thank you for caring for the people of this world from every tribe and tongue. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

We praise Thee, O God!
For the Son of Thy love,
For Jesus who died,
And is now gone above.
We praise Thee, O God!
For Thy Spirit of light,
Who has shown us our Savior,
And scattered our night.

“REVIVE US AGAIN” BY WILLIAM P. MACKAY

SCRIPTURE

Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

EPHESIANS 3:20–21

PRAYER

My God, there is no limit to your power and your ability. What seems impossible to me is more than possible with you, and with your Spirit in me, I can overcome. I am victorious in Christ because of your goodness. Thank you for this victory. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

The one who has won the battle,

He is who I praise.

The one who has gone before,

His banner will I raise.

The one who is only good,

He is who I look to.

The one who sits on high,

His strength will pull me through.

ANDREA LUCADO

For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand,

Saying to you, "Fear not, I will help you."

ISAIAH 41:13

PRAYER

Dear God, you are always there when I cry for help. You've never left my side. Thank you. Sometimes my focus strays. Help me to keep my eyes on you, the one true God. Your power and strength pull me out of the pit, and I love you for that. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
For Your mercy is great above the heavens,
And Your truth reaches to the clouds.

PSALM 108:3-4

But according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior.

TITUS 3:5-6

PRAYER

Father, nothing compares to your great mercy. I don't deserve your grace, but you give it to me freely and abundantly. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, I can live in the truth of your never-ending mercies and can live in your victory. In Christ I pray, amen.

29

WORSHIP

For I will not trust in my bow,
Nor shall my sword save me.
But You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.
In God we boast all day long,
And praise Your name forever.

PSALM 44:6–8

SCRIPTURE

Thus says the LORD to you: “Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.”

2 CHRONICLES 20:15

PRAYER

Dear Jesus, this is my surrender. I lay down my earthly weapons. I lay down my striving. I lay down all of my attempts to win my own battles. I cannot win on my own. But you can, and the battle belongs to you. I surrender all to you. I boast only about your goodness, love, and strength. In Christ I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

All creatures of our God and King
Lift up your voice and with us sing,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Thou burning sun with golden beam,
Thou silver moon with softer gleam!

O praise Him! O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

“ALL CREATURES OF OUR GOD AND KING” BY FRANCIS OF ASSISI

SCRIPTURE

After these things I heard a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God!”

REVELATION 19:1

PRAYER

Father, I look forward to the day that all creation will declare your name and your glory. You deserve all praise, and you created me to worship you. Today, let me live in the spirit of worship. Let the first words that I speak in every situation be praise to you. In your name I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth,
Who have set Your glory above the heavens!

PSALM 8:1

SCRIPTURE

And lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.

MATTHEW 28:20

PRAYER

Dear God, there's no distance I could go that would take me from your love. There is nothing I could do that would make you love me any less. You not only promised me your presence in this moment, but you also promised me your presence until the end of time. When nothing else in my world seems to last, your love does, and it will, forever. Thank you, Father. It's in your name I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

But I have trusted in Your mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.
I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 13:5-6

SCRIPTURE

For He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me with the robe of righteousness.

ISAIAH 61:10

Lord, you take my brokenness and replace it with righteousness and salvation. I'm so grateful for this truth, and I'm thankful for your generosity toward me. Please, let me never take your blessings for granted. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.
They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of
Your house,
And You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures.
For with You is the fountain of life.

PSALM 36:7-9

SCRIPTURE

But whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.

JOHN 4:14

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for quenching my thirsty soul with your living water. When I trust in you, I'm never disappointed. When I drink from the Water of Life, I am refreshed, renewed, and restored. Help me turn to you in every stronghold I face. In your name I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

Come, saints and adore him; come, bow at his feet!
Oh, give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
Let joyful hosannas unceasingly rise,
And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

“COME, SAINTS, AND ADORE HIM” BY MARIA DE FLEURY

SCRIPTURE

Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

NEHEMIAH 8:10

PRAYER

Father, I want your joy to be my strength today. When I face an obstacle too big or a stronghold too firm to handle on my own, restore my joy by reminding me of your victory. I worship and praise you because you are my God and I am yours. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands!
Serve the LORD with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.
Know that the LORD, He is God;
It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

PSALM 100:1-3

Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one! You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

DEUTERONOMY 6:4-5

WORSHIP

Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!
For His merciful kindness is great toward us,
And the truth of the LORD endures forever.
Praise the LORD!

The LORD your God in your midst,
The Mighty One, will save;
He will rejoice over you with gladness,
He will quiet you with His love,
He will rejoice over you with singing.

ZEPHANIAH 3:17

PRAYER

Father, I praise you. I thank you. You are truth. When everything else in my life is unreliable, you remain true to your promises. I wake up joyful knowing that I'm covered by your merciful kindness. Because of Christ, I get to spend eternity with you. In Christ I pray, amen.

WORSHIP

I will lift up my eyes to the hills—
From whence comes my help?
My help comes from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

WORSHIP

My God, how endless is Thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distill like early dew.

I yield my powers to Thy command,
To Thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from Thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Praise the Rock of our salvation!
Praise the mighty God above!
Come before His sacred presence
With a grateful song of love.

JAMES 1:17

PRAYER

Dear God, you are great. Every good thing on this earth is from you. I see your amazing works everywhere I turn—in nature, in my family, in my friends. Your plans for me are good because all of your creation is good. Thank you that you never turn your back on me. In Jesus' name, amen.

WORSHIP

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before Him, His glory proclaim;
Gold of obedience and incense of lowliness,
Bring and adore Him—the Lord is His name.

“WORSHIP THE LORD IN THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS” BY JOHN S. B. MONSELL
